PERMANENT ORDER 126-07

6 May 2013

United States Army Mission Command Training Program

Announcement is made of the following award:

Award: Army Superior Unit Award

Period of service: 1 October 2010 to 30 September 2011

Authority: AR 600-8-22, paragraph 7-16

Reason: For exceptionally meritorious service. During the period 1 October 2010 to 30 September 2011, the United States Army Mission Command Training Program displayed outstanding performance of duties in support of the Global War on Terror and operations in support of homeland security. The Mission Command Training Program provided a rigorous and challenging simulated combat training environment for the United States Army's Corps, Divisions and Brigade Commanders and their staffs in preparation for deployments to Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation New Dawn. The Mission Command Training Program significantly increased the readiness of the Army's forces deployed around the world and remains the premier organization for providing mission command training to the United States Army. The Mission Command Training Program's standards for professionalism and excellence, as well as its dedication and selfless service reflect distinct credit upon the unit, the Training and Doctrine Command and the United States Army.

Format: 320

Additional Instructions: This order serves as official notification that a unit award has been approved for the organization(s) listed above and will serve as authority for eligible Soldiers to update their records and wear the award. The award is still subject to final confirmation in Department of the Army General Orders. Official verification of a specific unit's entitlement to display the award in the form of an appropriate streamer on its flag or guidon rests with the U.S. Army Center of Military History (CMH), which is also responsible for determining official unit Lineage and Honors for MTOE organizations. CMH will use this permanent order to authorize the manufacture of an appropriate decoration streamer for any organization clearly entitled to display the award. The streamers will then be manufactured and sent to the U.S. Army Human Resources Command for automatic distribution to the units concerned. It is not the responsibility of HRC to replace streamers that are lost or damaged. Please refer to AR 840-10 for further guidance regarding the responsibilities of the unit concerning the display, care and disposition of the streamers.
