2 December 2014

United States Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center and School

Announcement is made of the following award:

Award: Army Superior Unit Award

Period of service: 17 August 2011 to 17 August 2012

Authority: AR 600-8-22, paragraph 7-16

Reason: During the period 17 August 2011 to 17 August 2012, the United States Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center and School displayed outstanding meritorious service in support of the United States Army Special Operations Command and Special Operations Command. The unit has exceeded all mission requirements in an extraordinarily superior manner by collectively training a historic number of Special Operations forces. The Soldiers of the unit were unyielding in their pursuit to train Special Operators in entry-level, Noncommissioned Officers and Officer Military Occupational Specialty qualifying courses and advanced skills that exceeded all mandated requirements. Throughout this period, the Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines of the command's various units continuously demonstrated their spirit and pursuit of excellence by working long hours and incorporating momentous education and expansion initiatives, while simultaneously conducting a Training and Doctrine Command accreditation, a Special Operations Command Manpower Survey, running courses to standard and deploying to operational units. This additional effort was an essential component to establishing the conditions required for success in the era of persistent global engagement and unconventional warfare led by Special Operations forces. The United States Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center and School's sustained, superior performance of duty reflects great credit upon themselves, the United States Army Special Operations Command and the United States Army.
